Step 1: Reflect on the Text

Read the Scripture printed above. What stands out to you? What do you find interesting and/or important? What is challenging or causes you to have questions?

Step 2: Reflect on the Sermon

INTRODUCTION

1. Do you often find yourself at odds with others? In what parts of your life are you prone to divisiveness?

2. What was your one, big takeaway from the sermon? How would you summarize the main theme of the sermon in one phrase or sentence?

THE FRAME (vv. 11-12)

1. What are some ways in which you have elevated yourself above others? What are some superiority complexes that you have that need to be dealt with?

2. How does a recognition of who we are and where we come from inform something our ability to forgive others?

THE REFRAME (vv. 13-18)

1. What were some of the practical and symbolic implications of the "dividing wall of hostility" that separated the Jews and Gentiles in the temple?

2. How does the gospel help us reframe our experiences of other Christians?

THE PICTURE (vv. 19-22)

1. How does the imagery of a temple inform your understanding the church? Or your Neighborhood Group?

2. What did Jeff mean when he said that divisiveness was out of place inside the church?

Step 3: Final Reflections

1. How has your understanding, appreciation, and love for Jesus and the gospel grown as a result of this study?

2. In what areas of faith and practice are you feeling convicted by the Holy Spirit to act as a result of this study?
